ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sincere thanks to all of the cousins who so readily responded with information to make this booklet possible.

Special thanks to Barbara for verve and inspiration. But for her enthusiasm this booklet would not have been. To Col. Max of the Army Air Force for his years of search for roots and for the historical data. To Buena for her untiring efforts gathering information. To Lizzie for the copies of family Bible records. Others deserve honorable mention but limited space does not permit.

It has been great meeting many of you by correspondence. I can hardly wait for a family reunion to meet you personally.

Bushong is a great name. We are proud of our heritage.

FOREWORD

From family tradition, correspondence and interviews with those who have spent many hours delving into family history, it appears that the name, BUSHONG, dates from the early 1700s. As now spelled, it is purely American with French and German backgrounds.

Research indicates that all Bushongs are descendants of one of two French Huguenots who were forced out of France on account of religious beliefs; migrating through Germany and Holland to America, both having settled in Pennsylvania, one in 1731, the other in 1732.

The first: Hans Boschung (German spelling) also known as Jean Beauchamp (French spelling), with his wife, Barbara, and four children arrived at Philadelphia on September 21, 1731 aboard the ship, Brittainia, of London, sailing from Rotterdam with Michael Franklyn, master.

The ship's passenger list contained the names of Hans Boschung, age 39; his wife, Barbara, age 37; the four children, Mary Magdalene, age 11; Hans Philip, age 9; Anna Barbara, age 6 and Christianna, age 3. After settling in Lancaster County, six other children were born; Jacob, John, Henry, Peter, David, and Elizabeth. Their birth dates are not known.

The second: Joh. Nicklaus Boschung and two sons, Andreas and Henrich arrived at Philadelphia on October 17, 1732 aboard the ship, Pink John and William, also sailing from Rotterdam, with Constable Tymperon, master. This ship had aboard, 61 men above age 16; and 109 women and children, in all 170 passengers. It seems likely that Joh. Nicklaus had a wife and perhaps, daughters.

Joh. and Hans are short forms of Johann or Johannes. These German names and the French, Jean, when translated into English become JOHN. Thus, our first ancestor in America was John Bushong.

Direct relationship to one of these immigrants has not been verified. However, documentation is picked up with the birth of George Washington Bushong, Sr. in 1768 in Virginia. From available material, which is sketchy, we deem it certain that he was the grandson of one of the immigrant Boschungs (now Bushong).

Near the end of the Revolutionary War and immediately afterward, there was quite a migration from Pennsylvania to the "Valley of Virginia" (Shenandoah) and from there into Kentucky. It appears quite evident that a son of one of the immigrants joined that movement and was the father of George Washington Bushong, Sr.

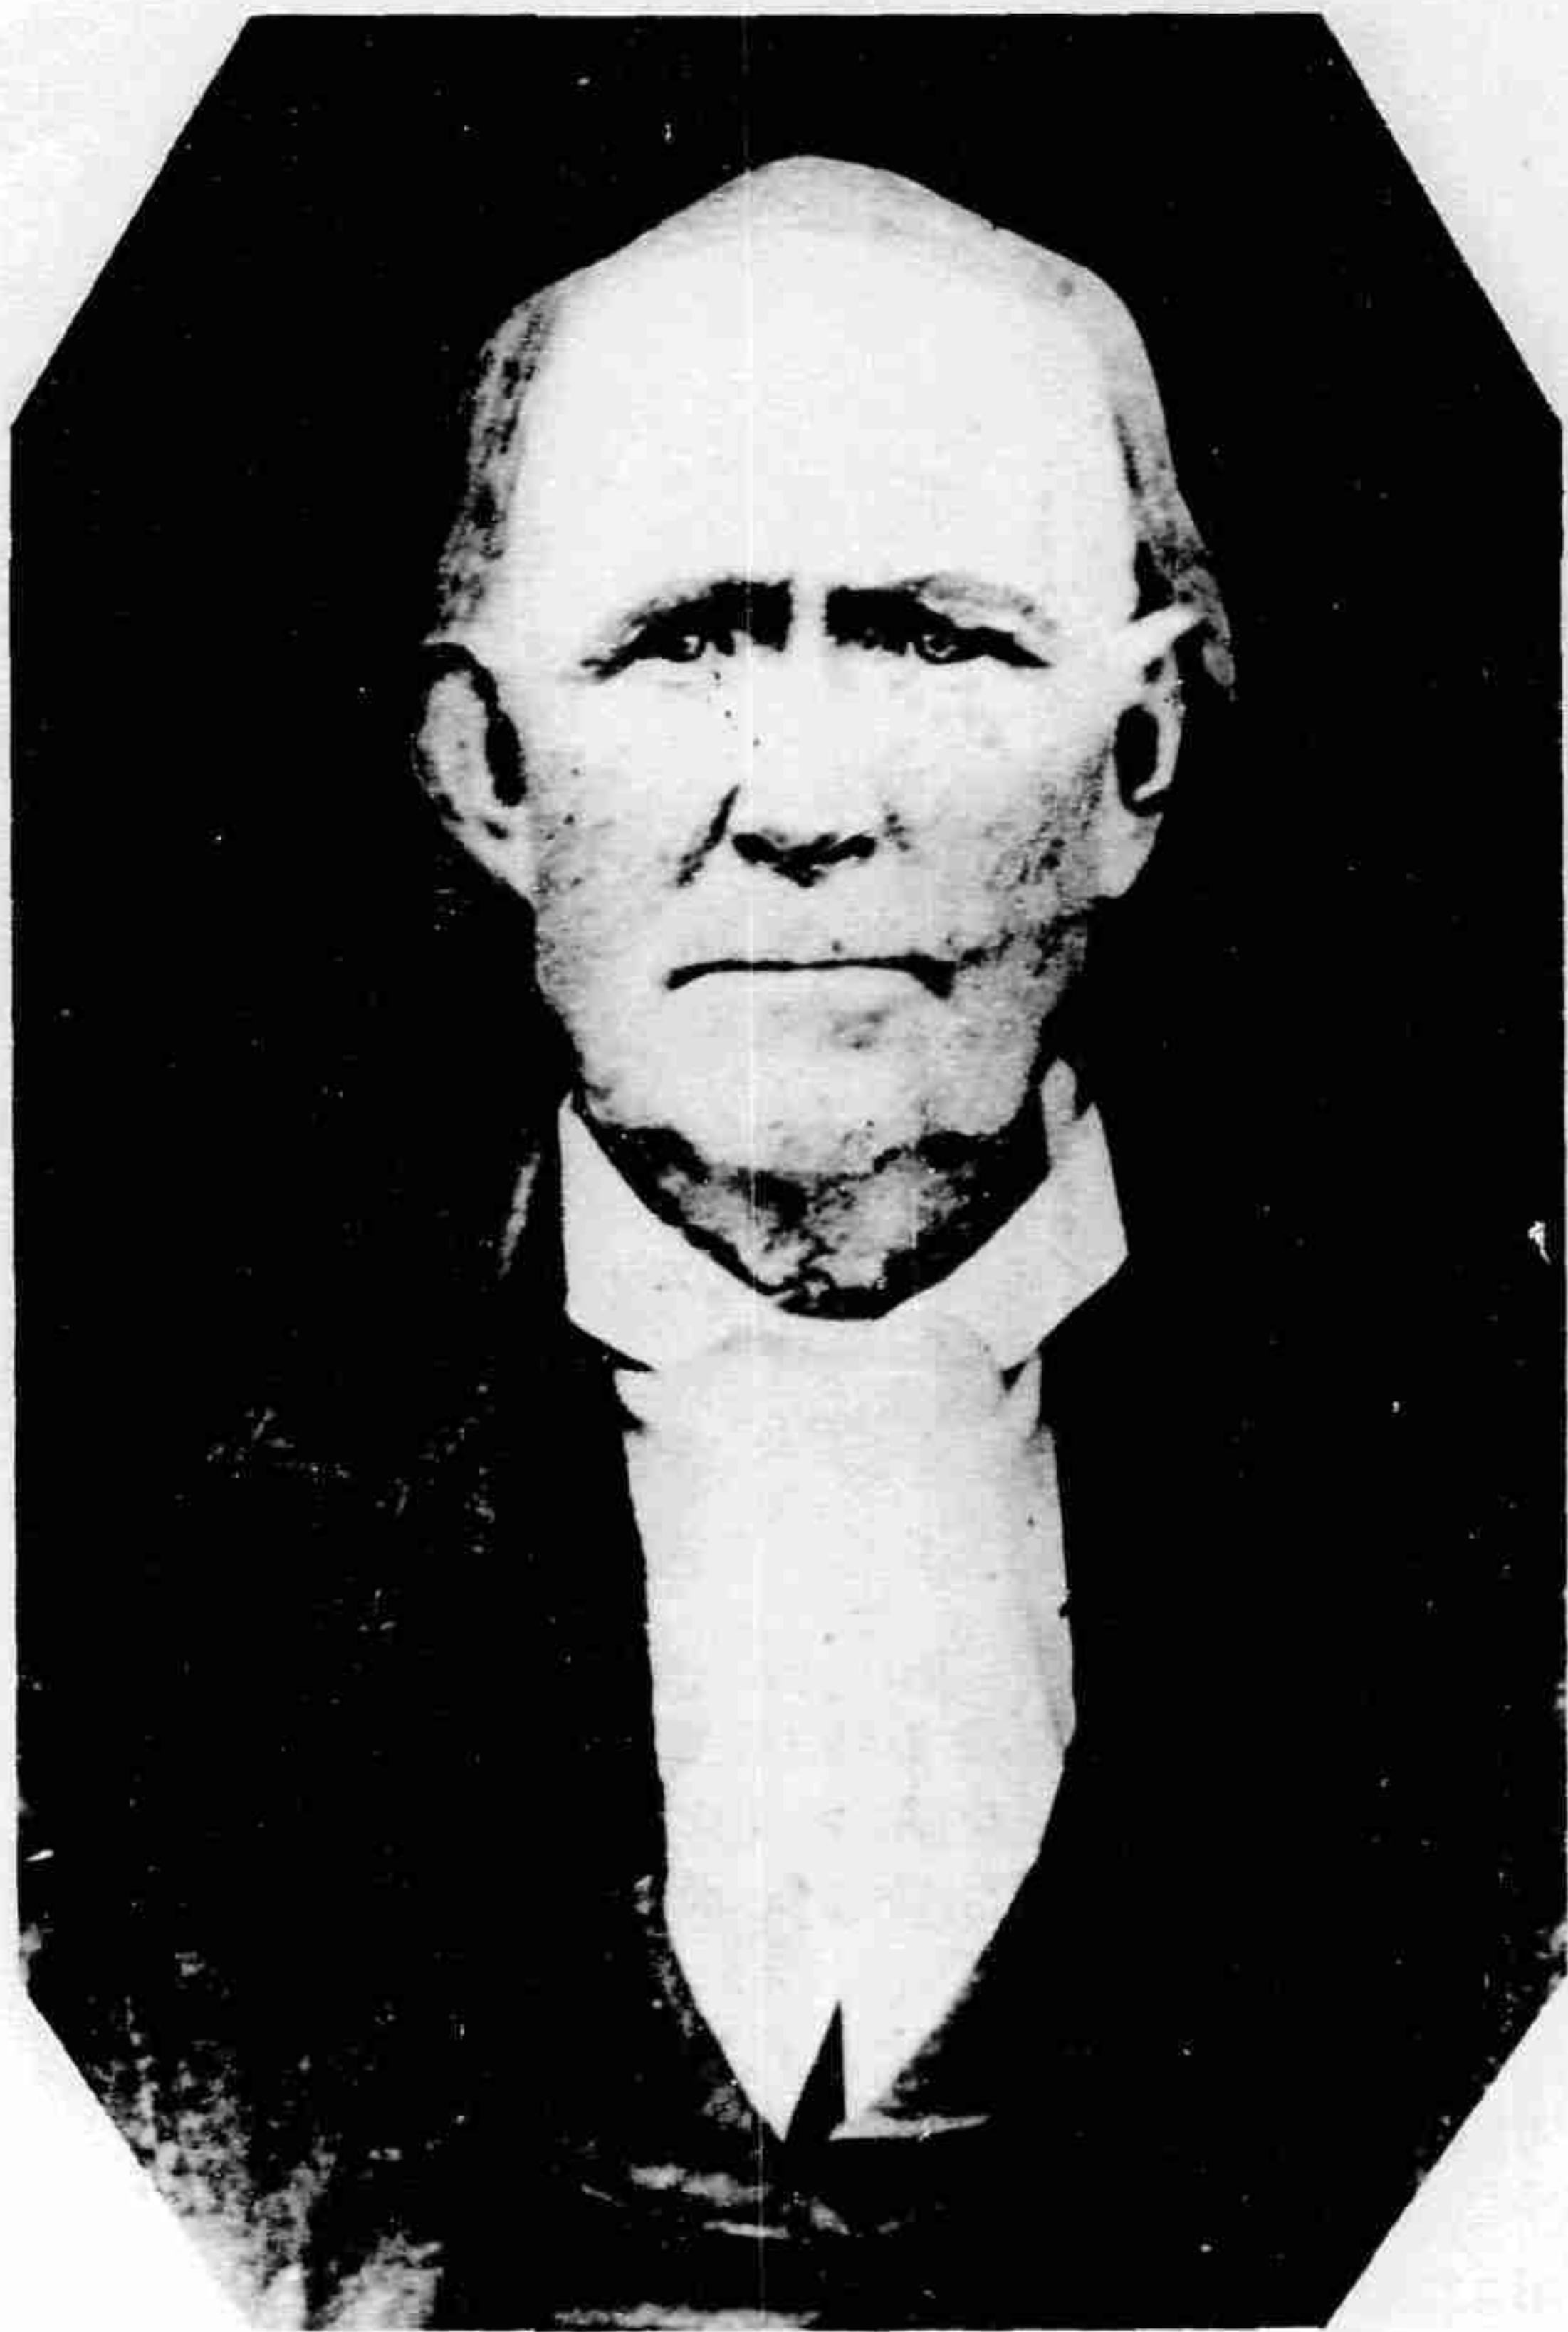

Martha Davis, the only daughter of Stephen Davis, became the wife of George on April 19, 1788 at Christiansburg, Virginia. She was born in 1770 and died in 1827. She is buried at Mt. Gilead (now Bushong), Monroe County, Kentucky. George and Martha were the parents of nine children: Nancy, Margaret, John Andrew, Jacob, Esther, Sarah S., Katherine, Martha and George W. Jr.

The 1850 census of Monroe County lists George W. Bushong, Sr., age 82, living with George W. Bushong, Jr. and Nancy. He died April 5, 1852 and is buried beside his wife at Mt. Gilead.

George Washington Bushong, Jr. was born December 12, 1807 in Kentucky, married Nancy Parker, who was born May 31, 1808. Their ten children were: Joseph A., Martha, William Davis, George W., Jacob, Henry, Perry, Nancy J., Sarah E., and Mary C.

Nancy Parker Bushong died October 22, 1858. George's second wife was Mrs. Patsey Biggerstaff Maxey. They married in 1860 and had one son, John, who died at the age of six. After the death of Patsey, he married Mrs. Mary Rush Simpson in 1862. They had no children.

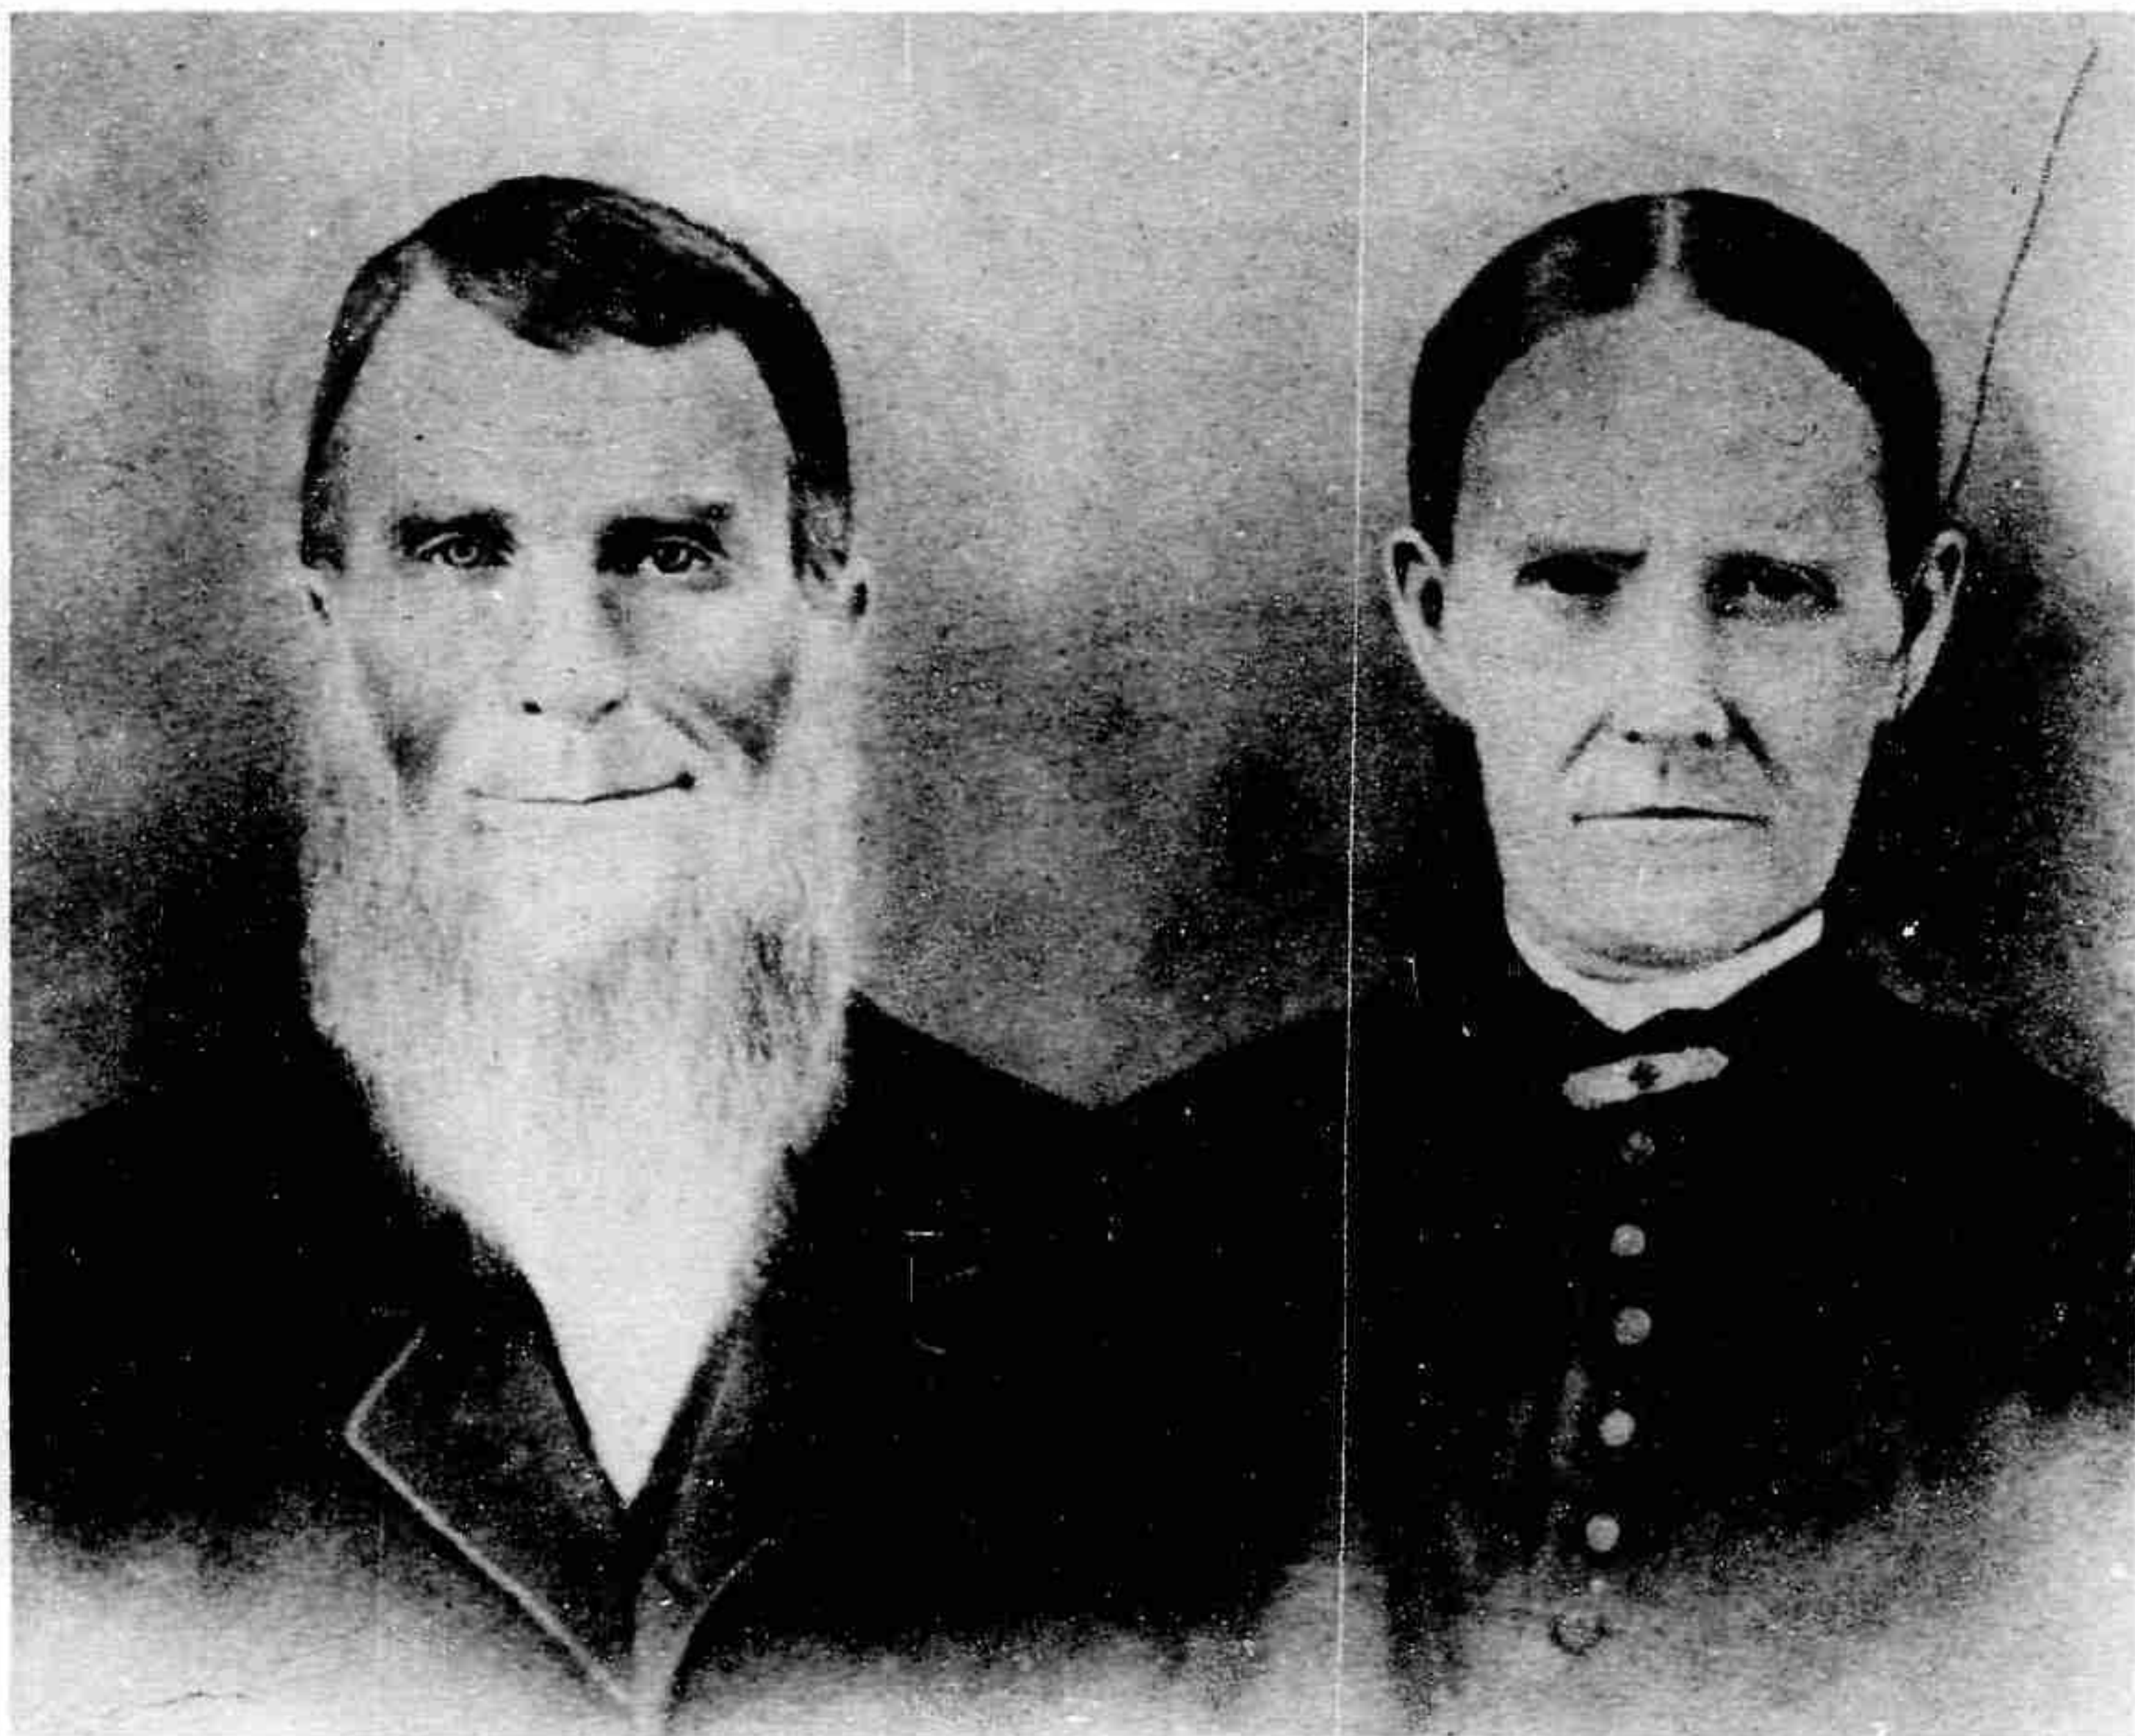

The Bushong family tree is quite extensive but here we will attempt, only to provide detailed lineage resulting from the union of WILLIAM DAVIS BUSHONG AND ELIZABETH WHITE, My grandparents.

Beauchamp-Bushong Tree

By Mary Bushong Feller-Wickes,

You owe it to your family,
You owe it to yourself,
To have the Beauchamp history
Upon your library shelf.

And with the Beauchamp data,
You have the Bushongs, too,
For Jean Beauchamp and John
Bushong
Were one. They were not two.

For Jean and wife came here from France
In 1731,
And settled in Pennsylvania, where
A great race was begun.

From there they migrated west and south
Many to Virginia, came,
And now wherever you may go,
You meet folks of this name.

Some call this name this way—
Bo-champ,
The French called it Bu-schong,
And so to keep it called that way,
They now spell it B-u-s-h-o-n-g.

My mother was a Bushong—
Eldest daughter of Henry,
Who lived near Woodstock, Virginia,
Just twenty miles away.

These two are gone, but of them both
I very often think;
Much more so as the years go by,
And we near Eternity's brink.

So that this name be ne'er forgot,
I search in every nook,
For births, and deaths, and marriage
dates,
For in my "Bushong Book."

Do you have any "Bushong Lore?"
Then rush it on to me—
So from your name a branch may grow
On the "Beauchamp-Bushong Tree."
